

Lighter (feat. KSI & Ella Henderson)

[Acoustic]

Nathan Dawe

When you said it was over
I knew I'd fallen too deep
You made my world feel perfect
Then pulled it from under my feet I cried for a minute
For a while I was trying to figure out what went wrong
Now I finally get it
And I see I don't need you to be here I'm moving on I used to think I couldn't be without you, be without you
Now that you're gone I feel happy as hell
Weight off of me I can breathe without you, breathe without you
Now that you're gone I feel lighter
I'm feeling so good like a fat man with a peng ting
Feeling so high like a black Yao Ming
Call me Godzilla 'cause I got a big part
Went through war got a purple heart
Needed my space, time, recovery
Now man's ace, quick summary
New Discovery, losing that weight
Post of the gram cos I'm just bait
I'm way too slick with it, John Wick with it
I've taken bare shots in a quick minute
More drinks with it, bare sick with it
Still end up in a bed with a chick in it
VVS1 with my chain buss down
Been through a lot now man's got a crown
KSI, verified, stay scheming, self-believing you know I
I used to think I couldn't be without you, be without you
Now that you're gone I feel happy as hell
Weight off of me I can breathe without you, breathe without you
Now that you're gone I feel lighter I cried for a minute
For a while I was trying to figure out what went wrong
Now I finally get it
And I see I don't need you to be here, I'm moving on I used to think I couldn't be without you, be without you
Now that you're gone I feel happy as hell
Weight off of me I can breathe without you, breathe without you
Now that you're gone I feel lighter
