

I'll Be the Moon

Ryan Hurd

[Verse 1]

The phone lights up in the dark
Ask where you are and I start driving
Meet me for a drink, just an hour
Maybe two, maybe three, baby, I'm in
Girl, you can't take your eyes off me
And that first kiss is sweet relief
Ain't no one gotta know
Just one more before you go

[Chorus]

I don't wanna be a liar
I don't wanna be a fool
I don't wanna be your secret
But I will if you want me to
You can leave me in the dark
If that's all I get from you
He can be the sun, I'll be the moon
Yeah, he can be the sun, I'll be the moon

[Verse 2]

Your phone lights up in the dark
Gotta go, I know, but it still ain't easy
Tomorrow, you'll be waking up beside him
Tell him that you love him, but you still see me
In your mind when you're looking at him
In your eyes, it's the obvious elephant in the room
He can't see it, but girl, you do

[Chorus]

I don't wanna be a liar
I don't wanna be a fool
I don't wanna be your secret
But I will if you want me to
You can leave me in the dark
If that's all I get from you
He can be the sun, I'll be the moon
Yeah, he can be the sun, I'll be the moon (I'll be the moon)

[Bridge]

Your phone lights up in the dark
Yes, it's my turn, and I start drivin'

[Chorus]

I don't wanna be a liar
I don't wanna be a fool
I don't wanna be a secret
But this is something I can't lose
So you can leave me in the dark
If that's all I get from you
He can be the sun, I'll be the moon
Yeah, he can be the sun, I'll be the moon

[Outro]

Your phone lights up in the dark
