

Pedestal

Bipolar Sunshine

[Chorus]

My arms are always open for ya
Freeze, don't pick it first, oh yeah yeah
My arms are always open for ya

[Verse 1]

Welcome to your party show where I just tell you
I can be off with all these games
Running around in circles cause me stress
I just wanted-
I'm a lone wolf
I walk around here on my own twos
I walk around here with my own shoes
I walk around here with my own rules
And I don't care where the wind goes
And I don't care where the sun blows
And I'm just going where I'm going
I'm just hoping that you're going to the same place as me
You already know you're sexy
In many ways interest me
You don't have to impress me
Whatever you want, ask me
Oh don't be shy, just ask me
I'm dead simple, no lusting
It can be dull just trust me

[Chorus]

My arms are always open for ya
Hoping for ya, open for ya
My heart is always open for ya
Everyday, oh everyday
My arms are always open for ya
Hoping for ya, open for ya
My heart is always open for ya
Everyday, oh everyday

[Verse 2]

Freeze, oh tryna be something
Hope you're in it, hope you're in it, hope you're in it
I'm just tryna make my world

Hope you're in it, hope you're in it, hope you're in it
Don't let me put all this on a pedestal, I know
Let's get to the point where it's unwritten rules, yeah yeah
I understand I'm a fool for love
Lemme push it on a pedestal
Easy goes, my mood change like the weather
Anxiety gets the better
I thought it woulda let me freeze
You're the one I see who holds the future
You got me where you want
Wait a second, lemme take a picture
Freeze
I don't really care about out there
I just wanna know if you're down already
I just wanna take you somewhere bae
But you gotta understand me

[Chorus]

My arms are always open for ya
Hoping for ya, open for ya
My heart is always open for ya
Everyday, oh everyday
My arms are always open for ya
Hoping for ya, open for ya
My heart is always open for ya
Everyday, oh everyday
