

Seattle

Kari Kimmel

You took a plane to Seattle
But I'm still here is LA
I can't stop thinkin' about you
Hope you're feelin' the same
There's no doubt in my mind now
Don't wanna spend one more day
Without you kissin' me, baby
So I'm makin' a change

What am I doin'?
You only left yesterday
Now I'm leavin' the sunshine
To be with you in the rain
No, I haven't been drinkin'
Well, maybe one glass of wine
Oh, I'm leavin' the good life
To where the sun never shines

I wanna hear you sing to me
Just like the man in the moon
Yeah, I'll be smilin' forever
As long as I'm there with you, you, you
No, I won't waste a moment
I'm going to be there tonight
Takin' nothing but good love and
I'll leave everything else behind

Well, what am I doin'?
Now I'm leavin' the sunshine
To be with you in the rain
No, I haven't been drinkin'
Well, maybe one glass of wine
Oh, I'm leavin' the good life
To where the sun never shines

The way that you call me baby
You really drive me insane
I'm on a plane to Seattle

Yeah, I'm leavin' LA

What am I doin'?

Now I'm leavin' the sunshine
To be with you in the rain
No, I haven't been drinkin'
Well, maybe one glass of wine
Oh, I'm leavin' the good life
To where the sun never shines

The way that you call me baby
You really drive me insane
I'm on a plane to Seattle
Yeah, I'm leavin' LA

The way that you call me baby
You really drive me insane
I'm on a plane to Seattle
Can't live in LA
