

Circles

Dag Nasty

there is a shadow floating over me growing to a vast crimson cloud meanings are blurred calm and harm in disorder my eyes blinded for what is realnoone there to drag me out of here noone there to stop me from drowningthe circle of fear is always present
no escape from my inner emptiness forever running in circles
---away from myself
i hear your voice in the distance
the fire drags me further down the spiral, tears a silent scream out of me crawling up and down the walls of my cold and empty room the ceiling collapses on me a place full of mirrors pitiless reflecting my deficiencychasing my own tail my own murderer death means exit
-death means fear
just fade into oblivionthe circle of fear
is always present
---away from myself
the fire drags me further down the spiral,
a paranoid knife teaching me with pain hurting me with fear killing me with memoriesi will eat myself alive devoured by my fear spit out my insidethe circle of fear
is always present
---away from myself
the fire drags me further down the spiral,
