

Just a Fool (feat. Blake Shelton)

Christina Aguilera

Another shot of whisky please bartender
Keep it coming 'til I don't remember at all How bad it hurts when you're gone

Na Na Na

Turn the music up a little bit louder Just gotta get past the midnight hour

Maybe tomorrow it won't

Be This

Hard Who am I kidding

I know what I'm missing

I

I had my heart set on you

But nothing else hurts like you do

Who knew that love was so cruel

Yeah yeah yeah

And I

Waited and waited so long

For someone who'll never come home

It's my fault to think you'll be true Yeah yeah

I'm just a fool Yeah

I said that I don't care

And walk away whatever

And I tell myself we were bad together

But that's just me trying to move on

With

Out You

But who am I kidding

I know what I'm missing

I

I had my heart set on you

But nothing else hurts like you do

Who know that love was so cruel Yeah yeah yeah

And I

Waited and waited so long For someone who'll never come home

It's my fault to think you'll be true (yeah yeah)

I'm just a fool

For holding on to something that

Never ever gonna come back

I can't accept that it's lost

I should have let it go

Held my tongue

Kept my big mouth shut Cause now everything's so wrong

Ooooh wrong

I'm just a fool

A fool for you
I'm just a fool
I had my heart set on you
Who knew that love was so cruel
And I
For someone who'll never come home
It's my fault to think you'll be true
Yeah yeah
I'm just a fool
I'm just a fool
I'm just a fool
It's my fault to think you'll be true
Yeah yeah yeah
I'm just a fool
