

Up

Pregnant Boy

[Intro: Pregnant Boy]

Turn it up a notch

Turn it up a notch

It's time to go...

[Verse 1: Pregnant Boy]

'Cause when I think about the time I wanted to be a pilot flyer
Fly a fighter, pop a zit, now I'm the headline, I can't wait to blow up

Yeah

And when I think about my side, I used to ride, I could of died
I can't lie, I wanna cry, but I can't hide, 'cause I'm about to go up

You see me

Yeah

And as I reassign the mission of the grind
I realize I've got my back against the wall

I'm the incline, I'm about to go up

You see me

Yeah

And as I redefine the mind, I feel the vibe
The [?] is one of a kind, you hear the chime
I guess this time, 'cause we about to go up

Who's with me?

Yeah

Go, go, go

Dream again
