

Second Guess

You+Me

they got no reason, but I've got runs I've spend too much what I've earned just trying to feel alive I wish I could re-write the story of the past but you can't go back and change what's done it's not over where you begin. I don't know where to go from here now something's still lingers its way slowing me down I know the sun will shine again back and forth, it seems we'll remain until the end one step too many time after time, fucking up round every turn sick of how I'm feeling inside I don't know where to go from here now something's still lingers its way slowing me down
I know the sun will shine again (shine again)
back and forth until the end (back and forth until the end)
why must everything be a second guess?
(back and forth until the end)
why must everything be a second guess?
I don't know where to go from here now something's still lingers its way slowing me down
