

Eighteen Cool

Hoodie Allen

[Intro]

Da da dadadada
Da da dadadada
Da da dadadada

[Verse 1]

We All-American

Party over here, call up everybody we know
This is for the women who be feeding off my ego
Tell 'em that I made it, 'cause I listen to my haters
Took what that said and negated, yeah I played it like I'm Tebow
Poor me out another one, take a shot and reload
Girls be waiting for me, got 'em lining up like free throws
Everywhere that we go they say I'm their favorite
But I see that you've been faking, baby I know how to make it
In America, doing what we love and we passionate
Your girl is cashing in, Kourtney Kardashian
You pulled up with some honey bees, and I pulled out with half of them
'Cause I ain't going home if I ain't going with the baddest chick

[Hook]

Thumbs up to my friends drinking whiskey
Peace out to the girls that will miss me
Middle finger to the dudes back in high school
'Cause you peaked at 18 cool, oh-ooh
'Cause you peaked at 18 cool, oh-ooh
You make me look so good

[Verse 2]

Nights be getting kind of cold, and lonely on the interstate
You be pushing 65, and I be pushing 68
Just to stay a head of you, and prove that we the best right?
Life is just a highway, but homie there's no test drive
Grab your girl and let's ride, take you where I'm supposed to be
'Cause I'll be back to earth someday, and you'll be baggin' groceries
Or trying to sell insurance, but this right here a sure thing
You wake up with nothing on your plate, oh you poor thing
'Cause I did what I want and I made my dreams reality
These bitches be caking off what I'm making like Sara Lee
Looking through my yearbook said I would succeed quick

Throwing out my salary, 'cause I don't ever need shit

[Hook]

Thumbs up to my friends drinking whiskey
Peace out to the girls that will miss me
Middle finger to the dudes back in high school
'Cause you peaked at 18 cool, oh-ooh
'Cause you peaked at 18 cool, oh-ooh
You make me look so good

[Bridge]

Four years, gone by, look back and you're out of your prime
But the cool kids never gonna miss me
It's all history, it's all history
Four years, denied, fuck that let's party tonight
But the cool kids never gonna miss me

[Hook]

Thumbs up to my friends drinking whiskey
Peace out to the girls that will miss me
Middle finger to the dudes back in high school
'Cause you peaked at 18 cool, oh-ooh
'Cause you peaked at 18 cool, oh-ooh
You make me look so good
