

Half Hoping

Ryan Hurd

[Verse 1]

I'm sober enough to know better
But I'm drunk enough to not care
I moved on enough to not give a damn what
But hung up enough to wonder where
You are tonight, is it a bar tonight
It's a fight between my head and heart tonight
I'm wishin' you would stay out, wishin' you'd come over
Baby, you're the angel and the devil tuggin' on my shoulder

[Chorus]

You can call me up, say you're all alone
Half hoping you will, half hoping you won't
You can walk in the door with my Doors shirt on
Half hoping you will, half hoping you'll
Kiss me like you used to kiss me
Wreck my head, my bed and then leave
I'm damned if you do, I'm damned if you don't
But I'm half hoping you will, half hoping you won't

[Verse 2]

Somewhere between good riddance
And throwin' rocks at your window pane
Wishin' things could be a little different
But wishin' they'd stay the same
Yeah, it'd save me some hurt, if my phone would die
But it'd be a damn good time if it would ring tonight

[Chorus]

You can call me up, say you're all alone
Half hoping you will, half hoping you won't
You can walk in the door with my Doors shirt on
Half hoping you will, half hoping you'll
Kiss me like you used to kiss me
Wreck my head, my bed and then leave
I'm damned if you do, I'm damned if you don't
But I'm half hoping you will, half hoping you won't

[Bridge]

I'm wishin' you would stay out

Wishin' you'd come over
Baby, you're the angel and devil tuggin' on my shoulder
Wishin' I'd forget you
But happy I remember
Baby, wish I could just pick a side but I'm right in the center

[Chorus]

You can call me up, say you're all alone
I'm half hoping you will, half hoping you won't
You can walk in the door with my Doors shirt on
Half hoping you will, half hoping you'll
Kiss my like you used to kiss me
Wreck my head, my bed then leave
I'm damned if you do, damned if you don't
But I'm half hoping you will, half hoping you won't
Girl, I'm only half hoping you want

[Outro]

Half hoping you will, half hoping you will
Half hoping you will, half hoping you will
Half hoping you won't
