

Simple Together

Alanis Morissette

You've been my golden best friend
And now with post-demise at hand
I can't go to you for consolation
Cuz we're off limits during this transition This grief overwhelms me
It burns in my stomach
And I can't stop bumping into things I thought we'd be simple together I thought we'd be happy together thought we'd be limitless together
I thought we'd be precious together
But I was sadly mistaken You've been my soulmate and then some I remembered you the moment I met you With you I knew god's face was handsome With you I saw fun and expansion
This loss is numbing me it pierces my chest
And I can't stop dropping everything I thought we'd be sexy together thought we'd be evolving together
I thought we'd have children together
I thought we'd be family together
But I was sadly mistaken If I had a bill for all the philosophies I shared
If I had a penny for all the possibilities I presented
If I had a dime for every hand thrown up in the air
My wealth would render this no less severe I thought we'd be genius together
I thought we'd be healing together
I thought we'd be growing together thought we'd be adventurous together
But I was sadly mistaken thought we'd be exploring together thought we'd be inspired together I thought we'd be flying together thought we'd be on fire together
but I was sadly mistaken

Lyrics provided by <https://www.songlyrics.band/>