

Some Girl

Andy Grammer

How does a stranger walk into my life and change what I thought it meant to be alive
It's crazy how you went from being just some girl I didn't know you

I didn't even know me

I was a solider

I was a one man army

I thought the future

didn't apply to me

And when I met you come on I was 23

Ohhh now you're every

ohhhh thing to me

Iiii would have never believed ya if you told me

How does a stranger walk into my life and change what I thought it meant to be alive

It's crazy how you went from being just some girl

Oh oh to being my whole world

To being my whole world And now you're my soulmate

And you get my shit if I die

And we got our own home

You're the mother of my child There's nothing that I don't

That I do not know about your life You're my one phone call

Ain't that shit wild How does a stranger walk into my life and change what I thought it meant to be alive

It's crazy how you went from being just some girl

To being my whole world

To being my whole world

(To being my whole world)

You could you could be gone

Just a decision I could've got wrong

But now you're the now you're the one for me

Always I was just lucky and dumb

I got in early with someone who was better than anything I could have foreseen

So tell me How does a stranger walk into my life and change what I thought it meant to be alive

It's crazy how you went from being just some girl

To being my whole world

To being my whole world How does a stranger walk into my life and change what I thought it meant to be alive

It's crazy how you went from being just some girl

Being just some girl
