

It's Time (Gregory Helms)

Jim Johnston

Listen!

I don't say a lot, only what's needed
Too many words, running then fleeing
Outta' control, lack of a soul
Attack in the hole where the Devil's competing!
You're reigning the darkness,????, mark his territory
Like the Wolf-Man come from evil, cut, running
Don't forget, stop!
'Cause nobody's gettin' too
Like someone took the light!

This world is spinning like the clock from outta' time!
The hands unwind now, soon will be mine!

It's time, yeah ya' know it's time for revolution!
It's time, I give ya' proper execution
It's time, 'cause you're a broken institution!
It's time, and I'm a natural evolution

(Guitar Solo!)

Shattered pieces, scattered faces
Full of the ways, I clean up and pick up the pace
Spiritual maze, with just a taste of good ways
And face it, ya' losing race

This world is spinning like the clock from outta' time!
The hands unwind now, soon will be mine!

It's time, yeah ya' know it's time for revolution!
It's time, I give ya' proper execution
It's time, 'cause you're a broken institution!

It's time, and I'm a natural evolution
