

S.T.O.P (feat. Ryan Tedder)

David Guetta

How many stars do you see now?
I must admit I haven't looked all of the lives that we live
When we rush and we push, do we bend? do we break?
How many days have we lost now?
I must admit I'm losing count
All of the time that we spent trying do what we do
Cause we makes it forsake
I'll stop right now
But I'm stopping with you
I'll leave this town
But I'm leaving with you
And I'm so tired of where we've been
Life won't start until this ends
I'll stop right now
But I'm stopping with you
I'll stop with you How many nights has it been now
I must admit not keeping count
All of the souls that we meet in the rush, in the maze
Time to find in the streets
I'm on my way, on my way now
I admit it took its toll
Trading your life, for the life of the night
Get it right, if it's all that you know
I'll stop right now
But I'm stopping with you
I'll leave this town
But I'm leaving with you
And I'm so tired of where we've been
Life won't start until it hits
I'll stop right now
But I'm stopping with you
I'll stop with you
