

Right Now (feat. blackbear)

sober rob

Teenage summer camp, got the walk down
Had to cop the pink polo for the Polo Lounge
Spillin' champagne older than me
Feels like last week, I was just 18
With a dollar and a dream, watch the big dogs play
Give me couple years, that be me one day
It ain't no long division why I can't commit to women
When they wanna make love, I just wanna make a billion, let's go
Throw 'em to the curb, boy, I can't be tamed
Just turned 25, got a taste of this fame
So tell me where'd it all go?
I need you riiight now, riiight now
Talk about it right now
'Cause I been thinkin' 'bout the future all the time
Riiight now, talk about it riiight now
I been thinkin' 'bout the future all the time, yeah
(I been thinking 'bout the future all the time, time, yeah
I been thinking 'bout the future all the time, yeah)
Teenage summer camp, got my Raf on Got the shoes with the straps, just to gas on 'em
Uh, sold the Caddy, copped the Range just to lap on 'em
On my next st, I'll take the blue and the black one
Oh Lord, I like to smoke with the lights down
Oh Lord, I like to fk with the legs up
Oh Lord, I like spendin' how I want to
Oh Lord, my accountant gotta keep score right now
Throw 'em to the curb, boy, I can't be tamed
Just turned 25, got a taste of this fame
So tell me, where'd it all go?
I need you right now, right now
Talk about it right now
'Cause I been thinkin' about the future all the time
Right now, talk about it riiight now
I been thinkin' 'bout the future all the time, yeah
