

For What It's Worth (feat. Angus & Julia Stone)

Kygo

I tell you boy I pay my way and go
I ain't the best at times untold
I'm adult when I'm on the drink
I question if I break up everything
And not even all the world's diamond rings
Put the girl to sleep to dream
We wanted everything when we were young
We were kids, trying to make it up
As we call home
As we call home
We were kids, trying to make it up
As we call home
As we call home
For what it's worth
I was only trying to wake you up
For what it's worth
I was only trying to wake you up
(trying to wake it up)
For what it's worth
I was only trying to wake you up
For what it's worth I was only trying
We were kids, trying to make it up
As we call home
As we call home
We were kids, trying to make it up
As we call home
As we call home
We were just kids making it up
We got blind even when we fucked it up
But what they never told us, it was wrong
Nobody ever seemed to care, it was gone
For what it's worth
I was only trying to wake you up
For what it's worth
I was only trying to wake you up
(trying to wake it up)
For what it's worth
I was only trying to wake you up
For what it's worth I was only trying

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://www.songlyrics.band/>

