

Crash & Burn

Daryl Hall

You and I go back
Baby we've got our own meaning
More than that
So why are we kissin' this goodbye?
Ending with a leaving plane
That's screaming through the sky
That fire we set was never meant
Meant to shine so bright
All I know is
I can't stand the light

Maybe it's just my turn
To crash and burn
Fall from the sky
But I gotta keep on flying
Don't know why
Maybe it's just my turn
To crash and burn
Fall to the floor
But I gotta keep on trying
It's all I know

Baby I know
It's gotta be hard
Living here with me
Gotta find some understanding
Need a little understanding

Maybe it's just my turn
To crash and burn
Fall from the sky
But I gotta keep on flying
Don't know why
Maybe it's just my turn
To crash and burn
Fall to the floor
But I gotta keep on trying
It's all I know

I could win

If I could walk away
Just say, "Our day's gone by"
But a loser just keeps holding on
So why do I?

Maybe it's just my turn
To crash and burn
Maybe it's just my turn
To crash and burn
Crash and burn
It's just my turn
Fall from the sky
Baby I know
It's gotta be hard
Fall from the sky
