

My Beautiful

Kari Kimmel

All I see is the beauty that you gave to me
All I want is to let go of the past and move on
I close my eyes and I'm haunted by the memories

I don't understand why you're gone
Love doesn't listen to reason
And hearts have a mind of their own
Even though a part of you has stopped believing
You will always be my beautiful

I guess I can't help but wonder if you're missing me
I don't want to keep dreamin' about all we could've been
I can still hear your voice but it's fading away

I just can't believe that you're gone
And love doesn't listen to reason
And hearts have a mind of their own
Even though a part of you has stopped believing
You will always be my beautiful

Why do some kingdoms come crashing down?
Without a warning, no
Like a wave, ruing in everything
I thought we were strong enough, strong enough
To ever get knocked down
But somehow we fall without a sound

And love doesn't listen to reason
And hearts have a mind of their own
Even though a part of you has stopped believing
You will always be, you will always be
You will always be my beautiful
