

Warning

Nick Jonas

I, keep trying to escape from this cage that I live in This prison in my head
Oh I, own many mistakes from all of the things I never did
I carry my defense
Now I'm running for the fences on my own And I can see the warning Yeah I can see the warning, warning
It's brighter than the morning, morning
Keeps trying to turn me right around
And it's all I ever wanted
It's all I ever wanted, wanted
I'm breaking the warning down, down
I, I got something inside it keeps burning my body til it's sore Keeps wanting more and more
Oh and I, I'm gonna find
I'm gonna find what I had lost
Unlearn what I was taught
Now I'm running for the fences on my own
And I can see the warning Yeah I can see the warning, warning
It's brighter than the morning, morning
Keeps trying to turn me right around And it's all I ever wanted
It's all I ever wanted, wanted
I'm breaking the warning down, down
I'm breaking the warning (I'm breaking the warning) I'm breaking the warning (I'm breaking the warning)
Down
Now I'm running for the fences on my own
And I can see the warning
Yeah I can see the warning, warning
It's brighter than the morning, morning
Keeps trying to turn me right around And it's all I ever wanted It's all I ever wanted, wanted
I'm breaking the warning down, down
I'm breaking the warning
Yeah I can see the warning, warning
(It's brighter than the morning, morning) I'm breaking the warning (Keeps trying to turn me right around) I'm breaking the warning
And it's all I ever wanted
It's all I ever wanted, wanted
I'm breaking the warning down, down
I'm breaking the warning down
