

Numb & Getting Colder (feat. Ku?ka)

Flume

Make your decisions now
Weight it up
Facing a long road down
Keeping your head above
Saying the same thing twice, won't make it right
Head up in your desires, whoah Maybe we're looking for different way
Does it matter when you act like this
Yeah, you got into something
Now you took control of you, oh
Cause you say it, but you won't admit it, oh
Numb and getting colder, physical existence
Say something
Said you begged to leave
I won't be behind you
And I can't breathe, breathe
I won't be behind you Said you begged to leave
I won't be behind you
And I can't breathe, breathe
I won't be behind you Not gonna tell you stop, ease it up
Hold your emotions back, stop taking it out on her
I'm gonna lose no pride, giving up
We're going on lockdown But maybe you're looking for a different way
Does it matter when you act like this
Yeah, you got into something
Now you took control of you, oh
Cause you say it, but you won't admit it, oh
Numb and getting colder, physical existence
Say something
Said you begged to leave
I won't be behind you
And I can't breathe, breathe
I won't be behind you Said you begged to leave
I won't be behind you
And I can't breathe, breathe
I won't be behind you If I feel like losing my mind
We're into deep
But feelings often we leave behind
I'm too weak from this
And trust your instincts
Broken, don't do one thing, survive
So primitively Said you begged to leave
I won't be behind you

And I can't breathe, breathe
I won't be behind you Said you begged to leave
I won't be behind you
And I can't breathe, breathe
I won't be behind you
