

Glass of Water

Coldplay

Scared of losin' all the time
He wrote it in a letter
He was a friend of mine
He heard you could see your future
Inside a glass of water
With ripples and the rhymes
And he asked, "Will I see heaven in mine?" That is just the way it was
And nothing could be better
And nothing ever was
They say you can see your future
Inside a glass of water
The riddles and the rhymes
"Will I see heaven in mine?"
Ohhhhhhhh
Son
Don't ask
Neither how full nor empty
Is your glass
Cling
To the mast
Spend your whole life
Living in the past
Going nowhere fast So he wrote it on a wall
The hollowest of halos
Is no halo at all
Televisions selling plastic figurines of leaders
Saying nothing at all
And you chime
"Stars in heaven align"
Ohhhhhhhh
Son
Don't ask
Neither how full nor empty
Is your glass
Cling
To the mast
Spend your whole life
Living in the past
Going nowhere fast What are we drinking when we're done?
Glasses of water
