

Kids Are Alright

Tate McRae

It's messed up
You know
So many highs and rollercoaster lows
Can't tell my left from right, emotional
But I hear it's just the way it goes
The way that it rolls They say
First cut is the deepest, it all
Happens for a reason, so just
Hold on, hold on, I'm
Still fall, still fallin'
Chaos only when you're in it
It'll all be clear in a minute
Hold on, hold on
We'll be alright
As long as the late nights turn into sunrise (alright)
As long as we got stars to count on we are alive
As long as our hearts can battle scars and put up a fight
As long as there's tears to cry, the kids are alright
Alright, alright, alright
Alright, alright, alright It's a broken road
So many miles, too many obstacles
I'm going crazy tryna drive below
But I hear if you don't hit the brakes
It falls into place They say
First cut is the deepest, it all
Happens for a reason, so just
Hold on, hold on, I'm
Still fall, still fallin'
Chaos only when you're in it
It'll all be clear in a minute
Hold on, hold on
We'll be alright
As long as the late nights turn into sunrise (alright)
As long as we got stars to count on we are alive
As long as our hearts can battle scars and put up a fight
As long as there's tears to cry, the kids are alright
Alright, alright, alright
Alright, alright, alright
Alright, alright, alright
Alright, alright, alright
