Travie McCoy

Ahaha

It's Travie! Bring the hook in.

(Chorus)

Doctor won't you come and help me take this pain away, away, away.

Ohhh Doctor give me what I need to get me through the day, the day, the day.

I want that feel good (that feel good), that feel good (that feel good), that real good (that real good) yeahhh x2

Doctor feel good help meee.

Lately I been beside myself and it's unlikely to hide myself

it's not like I like being by myself

I wanna see the world but can't decide myself whether or not to get up off this couch whether or not to get up out this house

I wanna know what it's like to feel real good is there something you could prescribe doctor feel good

I mean he's so happy she's so free doctor what in the world is wrong with me

I just need some reassurance

I know my carrier won't be insurrection

if you could just be earnest oops I meant honest and make this promise if any of this makes sense, let em'I know I wasn't crazy, just thoroughly convinced go!

(Chorus)

She got a set of lips like a sedative every time I kiss, it's like medicine something's telling me nope, nope don't let her it Cause every time I do, I end up upset again
Ahaha
and then it's back to the waitin' room waitin' patiently for them to bring another patient to him anything is possible especially when you see it in the hospital I hope doctor feel good can fix me and help me find a piece of mind before fifty [Mr. McCoy you're up next]
I made a detour quickly I tailed it to the exit door before they could get me it didn't take much to lose 'em but before I got home, I came to a conclusion if feelin' good means another appointment take two of these and don't expect to call in the morning Go!

(Chorus) x2
