

Far Gone (feat. Johnny Yukon)

BURNS

You were just on my thought
That's, pretty crazy
You got a piece of my heart, no lie
Yeah yeah yeah
You took it all and I don't know why (I hate it)
Yeah
It's still no woman yeah still no cry
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
I took apart everything we made and I brake it, yeah
I try my best to lose you
I put in work I had no rest with you, yeah
I made a plan I'm trying less to use you, uh
And that's not easy if I'm next to you, but I'm next to you
And we're too far gone to call it nothing
And it's so wrong to try and stop it
And for so long I thought I had nothing to lose
But I can't lose someone like you
And I can't lose someone like you
Let's do something, even if it's just something quick
A quickie
Yeah, I'm, I'm just gonna go to bed
You gave me love when I had no time
Yeah yeah
I tried to run and I don't know why (I hate it)
Yeah
It's still no woman yeah still no cry
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
I still regret everytime I waited
Yeah
I try my best to lose you
I put in work I had no rest with you, yeah
I made a plan I'm trying less to use you, uh
And that's not easy if I'm next to you, but I'm next to you
And we're too far gone to call it nothing
And it's so wrong to try and stop it
And for so long I thought I had nothing to lose
But I can't lose someone like you
And I can't lose someone like you
And we're too far gone to call it nothing
And it's so wrong to try and stop it
And for so long I thought I had nothing to lose
But I can't lose someone like you

And I can't lose someone like you
Too far gone to call it nothing
And it's so wrong to try and stop it
And for so long I had nothing to lose
But I can't lose someone like you
And I can't lose someone like you

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://www.songlyrics.band/>