

Unsolable

X Ambassadors

I hope we stay
Thick as thieves, butter and bread
Pillars of colonial homes
And I wish I could shout you out
A False start
Don't get your cane caught in the cracks
Buckle your seatbelts, polluting the airwaves
Single and lonely
And you say you are
Unsolable
And you say you are Un
And you say you are Un
Unsolable
Uncontrollable
Come up to my house
Drink with my friends
You can lay on my couch
Aching to start all over again
Going back to your room
Wait a minute it's my room
Was it something I said?
Was it something I said?
And you say you are
Unsolable
And you say you are Un
And you say you are Un
Unsolable
Uncontrollable
Come up to my house
Drink with my friends
You can lay on my couch
Aching to start all over again
Going back to your room
Wait a minute it's my room
Throwing up on my bed
Was it something I said?
I said
I hope we stay
Thick as thieves, butter and bread
Pillars of colonial homes
And I wish I could shout you out A False start
Don't get your cane caught in the cracks

Buckle your seatbelts, polluting the airwaves

Single and lonely

And you say you are Un

Unsolvable

And you say you are Un

And you say you are Un

Unsolvable

Uncontrollable
