

I'll Be the Moon (feat. Maren Morris)

Dierks Bentley

The phone lights up in the dark asks where you are & I start driving Meet me for a drink, just an hour, maybe two, maybe three, baby I'm in Girl, you can't take your eyes off me & that first kiss is sweet relief
Ain't no one gotta know
Just one more before you go I don't wanna be a liar; I don't wanna be a fool
I don't wanna be a secret but I will if you want me to
You can leave me in the dark if that's all I get from you
He can be the sun, I'll be the moon
Yeah, he can be sun, I'll be the moon
The phone lights up in the dark, gotta go I know, but it still ain't easy
Tomorrow you'll be waking up beside him tell him that you love him but you still see me
In my mind when I'm looking at him & in my eyes it's the obvious elephant in the room
He can't see it, but girl, you do I don't wanna be a liar; I don't wanna be a fool
I don't wanna be a secret but I will if you want me to
You can leave me in the dark if that's all I get from you
He can be the sun, I'll be the moon
Yeah, he can be sun, I'll be the moon The phone lights up in the dark, yes, it's my turn & I start driving
I don't wanna be a liar; I don't wanna be a fool
I don't wanna be a secret but this is something I can't lose
You can leave me in the dark if that's all I get from you
He can be the sun, I'll be the moon
He can be sun, I'll be the moon The phone lights up in the dark
