ATTENTION ATTENTION

Shinedown

Attention, attention, get down on the floor
Don't reach for your pockets, don't run for the door
Attention, attention, it's urgent, it's realThe cameras are rolling, the envelopes sealed
Attention attention,
By the way did I mentionThe stories I hear are the stories I tell
Like jumping over buildings and sneaking outta hell
Intention, retention, it's all in your head
That greedy little mistress, they tied in in your bed
Attention attention
By the way did I mention
Nothing bout me is ordinary
My friends all say I'm going crazy
I don't hear a word that they say
Cause the voices in my head are legendary
But I'll never tell em where the bodies are buried
Keeps them coming back every dayOh no, oh no
They're just villains in my mind doing time
Oh no, oh no
They're just matches burning holes in my soulAttention attention 'cause this ain't a stunt
The judges are racist, the juries corrupt
The shelves are all empty but the seats are all filled
You're a shiny new penny, I'm a hundred Dollar bill
Attention attention, by the way did I mention
Nothing bout me is ordinary
My friends all say I'm going crazy
I don't hear a word that they say
Cause the voices in my head are legendary
But I'll never tell em where the bodies are buried
Keeps them coming back every dayOh no, oh no
They're just villains in my mind doing time
Oh no, oh no
They're just matches burning holes in my soulAttention, attention
Attention, attention
They're just villains in my mind doin' timeNothing bout me is ordinary
My friends all say I'm going crazy
I don't hear a word that they say
Cause the voices in my head are legendary
But I'll never tell em where the bodies are buried
Keeps them coming back every dayOh no, oh no
They're just villains in my mind doing time
Oh no, oh no
They're just matches burning holes in my soulOh no, oh no
