

Hurting

Kygo & Rhys Lewis

I'm trying but I'm finding it hard to speak
It's like your eyes have been designed just to cut through me
When you heal me I still feel like I'm gonna bleed
And I know that you know that
I just thought I should own it Oh, loving me can be a burden
When my heart is freezing
I'll need you to burn it
Oh, guess I'm just a fucked up person
The only time I'm feeling Is only when I'm hurting
Only when I'm hurting
Is only when I'm hurting
Only when I'm hurting
Now it's heavy under the light of this empty street
And you're hating the parts you used to love about me
I pull you into my arms but you're still out of reach
And I know that you notice
I won't blame you for going Oh, loving me can be a burden
When my heart is freezing
I'll need you to burn it
Oh, guess I'm just a fucked up person
The only time I'm feeling Is only when I'm hurting
Only when I'm hurting
Is only when I'm hurting
Only when I'm hurting And I know that you're going out of your mind
But I can't love, no, I can't love
Oh, loving me can be a burden
When my heart is freezing
I'll need you to burn it
Oh, guess I'm just a fucked up person
The only time I'm feeling Is only when I'm hurting
Only when I'm hurting
Is only when I'm hurting
Only when I'm hurting
Is only when I'm hurting
Only when I'm hurting
