

Disconnected

5 Seconds of Summer

Oh oh o-o-oh, oh oh o-oh Life's a tangled web
Of cell phone calls and hashtag I-don't-knows
And you you're so caught up
In all the blinking lights and dial tones
I admit I'm a bit of a victim in the worldwide system too
But I've found my sweet escape when I'm alone with you Tune out the static sound of the city that never sleeps
Here in the moment on the dark side of the screen
I like the summer rain
I like the sounds you make
We put the world away
We get so disconnected
You are my getaway
You are my favorite place
We put the world away
Yeah we're so disconnected Oh oh o-o-oh, oh oh o-oh
We're so disconnected
Oh oh o-o-oh, oh oh o-oh Hands around my waist
You're counting up the hills across the sheets
And I'm a falling star
A glimmer lighting up these cotton streets
I admit I'm a bit of a fool for playing by the rules
But I've found my sweet escape when I'm alone with you
Tune out the static sound of the city that never sleeps
Here in the moment on the dark side of the screen
Hey! I like the summer rain
I like the sounds you make
We put the world away
We get so disconnected
You are my getaway
You are my favourite place
We put the world away
Yeah we're so disconnected Turn off the radio(oh-oh)
Those late night TV shows(oh-oh)
Hang up the telephone
And just be here with me Turn off the radio(oh-oh)
Those late night TV shows(oh-oh)
Hang up the telephone
And just be here with me I like the summer rain
I like the sounds you make
We put the world away
We get so disconnected

You are my getaway
You are my favourite place
We put the world away
Yeah we're so disconnected I like the summer rain
We get so disconnected
You are my getaway
Yeah we're so disconnected Oh oh o-o-oh, oh oh o-oh
Oh oh o-o-oh, oh oh o-oh
