Verse:1

Ain't got a point to prove, give ah fuck about point of views
Money I been running through, I do want I want to do
They tell me how I pose to be, got all these high Hopes for me
And acting like I owe em bitch name a song that you wrote for me
When I was locked up going to cope bitch you wasn't josing me
When I locos shitted on me and looked over me
But Now I'm having you wanna pour up and come toast with me
Ask em what's they reaction if a nigga stood over me

Hook:

Don't need no shoulfer Ride by myself
God to my right, got the devil to my left
That rod to my right, at the light make a left
I know story's I won't tell I just keep em to my self
Sometimes I want to get on these beats and come and run you shit
Can't tell you secrets bout the niggas I been running with cause this some Illuminati shit see

Watching opps around just moving like the mob, but we like the audience, he think he a funny

My gen been jumping pogo, hold on that gang solo
Fuck your feelings put them bitches to the sides
