

Taller Than Me

Evan Blum

[Intro]

I know people see, and they laugh at me
'Cause yes it's true, my girl's taller than me
I'm a laughing stock uptown and all of this should get me down
But not matter the difference in height

[Chorus]

I gotta say, "It feels so good, to love you girl
God, it feels so right to rock your world
God, it feels so automatic, fuckin' ballin'
Knowin' that my girl is taller, than me"

[Post-Chorus]

She's taller (taller)
She's taller (taller)
She's taller, than me
She's taller (taller)
Taller

[Verse 1]

Hey tall girl
Yes, I love no one else
So could you please get that for me
From the top shelf?
I've been dating her since last June
Now we share a house, now we share a room
And when we sleep during a full moon
I let her be the big spoon
Wanna put your feet up and heat up
And free up both of my hands
Fuckin' heat up and speed up and re-up
Al this love for your man
Can't wait to be your mister
Love the way you swiffer
Love the way you use your legs
When you play Twister
And i know it may sound kinda strange and not right
But could I wear your heels for the night?
She measured me in my sleep
Way back, last February

Being seen as your son is one of my fears
'Cause i still do my shopping at the kid sections at sears
But big things come in small packages
That ain't just a figure of speech, that's just the way it is Truth be told, I didn't even know you were tall
Until you wore my large sweatshirt as a mini skirt
And i'm glad your tall, gives me more of you love
I love staring into your eyes, about two feet above
But life's short and so am I
So why not be with a tall girl for the rest of my time?
'Cause no matter the difference in height

[Chorus]

I gotta say, "It feels so good, to love you girl
God, it feels so right to rock your world
God, it feels so automatic, fuckin' ballin'
Knowin' that my girl is taller, than me"

[Post-Chorus]

She's taller (taller)
She's taller (taller)
She's taller, than me
She's taller (taller)
Taller

[Verse 2]

And I know that when i'm a father with her
I can almost guarantee she'll be giving birth to a tall daughter
And that tall daughter can protect herself
And that tall daughter can respect herself
I know I take it fast, but it's hard to go slow
'Cause for every single step you take, I gotta take four more
I knew something was off from the start
We went shopping and she put me in the shopping cart
Is this strange or the way its supposed to be?
'Cause babygirl can dunk over me
I do understand there's advantages too
Dating a girl that is taller than you
She knows it's raining before I do
She gives me piggy back rides If I want to
She has to change the lightbulbs on the ceiling
Doesn't got a problem with public speaking
And she put me on her shoulders for the concert
We got a great view no matter the seating
And yes my friends make fun of me
But none of that matter cuz they don't see
No matter the difference in height

[Chorus]

Damn, it feels so good, to love you girl
God, it feels so right to rock your world
God, it feels so automatic, fuckin' ballin'
Knowin' that my girl is taller

[Outro]
Than me
Than me
Than me
Than me
