Black Eyed Peas

Does it hurt just to breathe
You have a pulse
But you feel incomplete
Just a shell of who I should be
I've become so hollow
I awake, Just to fall sleep
Each day adds to cycle of monotony
It's a shame that this is how I'll always be
So hollow
So hollow
And I don't wanna live my life
Feeling like I never got it right
Forever numb, please set me free
Just any love is not enough
Over the years I have come undone
I pray to God,
"Please set me free so that I'm not hollow."
I'm a wreck. Catastrophe.
I swear these heavy thoughts will be the death of me.
I need to make a change
I won't let this be my life
No more "getting by"
I wanna strive not just survive
Something's gotta give
I don't know what to do I've been running in circles Oh I need you
To show me the way out
I just need to know
If you can lead me then
I might not be so hollow
And I don't wanna live my life
Feeling like I never got it right Forever numb, please set me free
Just any love is not enough
Over the years I have come undone
I pray to God,
"Please set me free so that I'm not hollow."
Just any love is not enough
Over the years I have come undone
So hollow
I pray to God,
"Please set me free so that I'm not hollow."
