

Pas de Cheval

Panic! At the Disco

Oh, little did she know
Couldn't let me go
Already a part of her So, often do I need
People in between
That just can't get a hold of it So we'll just sing it for them
Ahhh
Yeah, we'll just sing it for them (Just can't get a hold of it)
So we'll just sing it for them
Ahhh
Yeah, we'll just sing it
It's the greatest thing that's yet to have happened
Imagine knowing me
It's the greatest thing you'd ever imagine
But you'll never know until you're there
No, you'll never know until you're there
Slow, leave walking to the world Give your feet a chance
They'll do all the thinking
Toast, high until they find
Less pathetic wine
Until they get a better blend
And we'll just drink it for them Ahhh
Yeah we'll just drink it for them ('til they get a better blend)
So we'll just drink it for them
Ahhh
Yeah we'll just drink it
It's the greatest thing that's yet to have happened
Imagine knowing me
It's the greatest thing you'd ever imagine
But you'll never know until you're there
No, you'll never know until you're there
It's the greatest thing that's yet to have happened
Imagine knowing me
It's the greatest thing you'd ever imagine
But you'll never know until you're there
No, you'll never know until you're there
No, you'll never know until you're there
