

Nothing Left to Lose

Kari Kimmel

If you could know what I was feelin'
You'd know that I belong with you
And in this love never defeated
Living, dying here for you

And everyday seems it will never end
I fall asleep to wake and it starts over again

I've got all the time in the world
And every night to think of you
And empty seems to last forever
But I guess I've got nothing left to lose

Oooohhhh yeaahhhh

I gave my heart while it was beating
And handed it over to you
And it was so beautiful when it was needed
And know it's all messed up and left in ruins

Now every day seems longer than the last
And all the faces come and go but nothing heals the past

I've got all the time in the world
And every night to think of you
And empty seems to last forever

Nothing, nothing, nothing left to lose
