

Sorry Is Just Too Late

Shannon Noll

I close my eyes
As the tear on your cheek slowly dries
And after tonight
All is past
It's the last of all our goodbyes
We tried to meet halfway
We said all the words we can say
Chorus:
Whether we're wrong
Whether we're right
We know everything
Everything means nothing tonight
I wouldn't give
And you wouldn't take
We both know that saying
Sorry is just too late
Do you not see in me
All the things that I just don't see in you
Let's just agree
We've been dancing around
What's been long overdue
You know the story's gonna stay the same
And the story ain't who gets the blame
Chorus
Maybe one day baby way down the line
The world might change
And we'll change our minds
Maybe one day we will both remember
And get together
Talk about old times, yeah
You know the story's gonna stay the same
And the story ain't who gets the blame
Chorus
