

Reasons

Brittany Maggs

[Verse 1]

How did we get here?
I always thought it be you and me
Like broken records
We're back&€...and&€...forth between the&€...sheets

[Pre-Chorus]

I know I fuck up sometimes
And&€...I know, you know, we know that we're chasing
Something that we'll never find
You can pretend, I can't, just so you know

[Chorus]

I, would've run a million miles just to find your warmth and try
To fall back in your arms for one night
And I'm, tryna find reasons why your hands are cold tonight
Tryna find reasons
Tryna find reasons

[Verse 2]

These nights get longer
You're so convincing when you lie
And I try to hide it
But I see straight through them every time

[Pre-Chorus]

You know you fuck up sometimes
And I know, you know, we know you ain't changing
You can't even seem to try
And this love we've built up, well, baby we've lost it

[Chorus]

I, would've run a million miles just to find your warmth and try
To fall back in your arms for one night
And I'm, tryna find reasons why your hands are cold tonight
Tryna find reasons

[Bridge]

So tell me, where'd it go wrong?
Why you don't ever see what I see?

We've been here for so long, now I'm done
So tell me, where'd it go wrong?
Why do you never see what I see?
What we could have been, yeah
Just so you know

[Chorus]

I, would've run a million miles just to find your warmth and try
To fall back in your arms for one night
And I'm, tryna find reasons why your hands are cold tonight
Tryna find reasons, reasons, reasons
So tell me, where'd it go wrong?
Why you don't ever see what I see? (Yeah)
We've been here for so long, now I'm done
I'm tryna find reasons, reasons, reasons

[Outro]

I'll tell you where it all went wrong
And you'll see what we could have been
