99 Years (Duet with Jennifer Nettles)

Josh Groban

Boy meets girl and the world stops turning
She makes him forget all the rules he was learning
They give a toast to the ones who never stop hoping There's not much to lean and eyes wide open
And they look up high and wonder what the future's gonna holdWill we look back down on 99 years of a wonderful life

Where we laughed till we cried and our love was stronger with every fight There'll be a thousand moments for you to say "I told you"

And a million more for us to say "I love you" So let's look forward to you and I looking back

At 99 years like that At 99 years like that

They build a house of love in the face of worry

But life has a way of rewriting the story

There were times when it looked like nothing could save them

There were times when it looked like nothing could break them

They keep promising each other what the future's gonna holdWill we look back down on 99 years of a wonderful life

Where we laughed till we cried and our love was stronger with every fight There'll be a thousand moments for you to say "I told you"

And a million more for us to say "I love you"

So let's look forward to you and I looking back

To 99 yearsOf nothing unspoken

With every day hoping

That when we feel broken

Our scars make us golden

Is to choose you and I

Will we look back down on 99 years of a wonderful life
Where we laughed till we cried and our love was stronger with every fight
There'll be a thousand moments for you to say "I told you"

And a million more for us to say "I love you" So let's look forward to you and I looking back

At 99 years like that

Oh, at 99 years like that

At 99 years like that
