

16 Years

The Griswolds

Sixteen years
without even a place to call my home
I'll dry my tears
looking for a place to rest my bones. All these years but never changed the one that I have known.
Despite my fears
I'm sure that I can make it on my own. Party drugs and limousines oh Momma this is killing me.
I'm half the man I used to be
To give to lust and gambling
Oh Momma I need rescuing.
What sixteen years has done to me. Sixteen years burning every bridge that I have known.
Without you here,
the world has gotten colder on my own.
Party drugs and limousines
Oh Momma this is killing me.
I'm half the man I used to be.
To give to lust and gambling
Oh Momma I need rescuing.
What sixteen years has done to me.
There's nothing like it
I'm going away.
There's nothing like the feeling
Of being alone now on a New York street gives everything some meaning.
There's nothing like being torn apart from a love you've known right from the start.
There's nothing like this feeling.
Party drugs and limousines
Oh Momma this is killing me.
I'm half the man I used to be.
To give to lust and gambling
Oh Momma I need rescuing.
What sixteen years has done to me.
It's what sixteen years has done to me.
It's what sixteen years has done to me.

Lyrics provided by <https://www.songlyrics.band/>