

Homesick

Kane Brown

Dancing in the kitchen you singing my favorite songs swinging on the front porch just laughing at the dogs now you swear you love me more when you whispering goodnight every little moment is every reason why im homesick this feeling that im feeling no it don,t quit it,s like half of me is missing heaven knows it that all i wanna do is be alone with your brown eyes all tangled up just holdin onto you tonight until the morning babys thats the damn truth if home is where the heart is then im homesick for you well it says kane brown on a sign with a line out the door sold out some little town i never been before yeah there screaming my name this is what we dreamed about but out here singing about you baby all i think about is how im homesick this feeling that im feeling no it don,t quit it,s like half of me is missing heaven knows it that all i wanna do is be alone with your brown eyes all tangled up just holding onto you tonight until the morning if home is where the heart is then im homesick for you im homesick for you im homesick this feeling that im feeling no it don,t quit it,s like half of me is missing heaven knows it that all i wanna do is be alone with your brown eyes all tangled up until the morning baby thats the damn truth if home is where the heart is then im homesick for you im homesick for you yeah yeah im homesick for you
