

I Don't Wanna Go

Alan Walker & Julie Bergan

So here we are
Like we were
Two feet apart
In different worlds
Don't need to say
Another word
No, I should leave But I don't wanna go just yet
'Cause I'm not really over it
You would break my heart
I've been lying and I wish you never told
But it's all I've got
Just five more minutes and I'll go
Same old song like an echo
'Cause I know I'm better off alone
It is my pride and I really know
I shouldn't stay but I don't wanna go Now that I know the way it ends
The words we chose, irrelevant
Let's just pretend a little bit
I know I should leave But I don't wanna go just yet
'Cause I'm not really over it
You would break my heart
I've been lying and I wish you never told
But it's all I've got
Just five more minutes and I'll go
Same old song like an echo
'Cause I know I'm better off alone
It is my pride and I really know
I shouldn't stay but I don't wanna go
Just five more minutes and I'll go
Same old song like an echo
'Cause I know I'm better off alone
It is my pride and I really know
I shouldn't stay but I don't wanna go
