

Maybe

Brandon Beal

[Verse 1:]

Everyday I thought about it
Holding on, I was crazy about you
All I knew is the way you had me blown away
Every time I saw you
You and me at the bus stop waiting
I would be procrastinating
Suddenly, I straight up let you walk away
Cause I was like

[Chorus:]

Maybe she was going home to her boyfriend
Maybe I wasn't the type that she wanted
Maybe I coulda had her, but I was tricked
Didn't make that decision no
And all I got is
Maybe she woulda been my baby
She coulda been
If I had said, "Baby, what's your name? "
Now all I got is maybe, maybe

Maybe I'm crazy to let you go
Maybe I never thought I wouldn't see you no more
I had the chance (chance)
I let her passed (passed)
Now all I got is maybe, maybe

[Verse 2:]

Seems that I lost my chance with you
How could I let you leave without a
Clue that I wanna be the one you run to
Oh
And what if you got away
I'll see you another day
And now I don't
That I wish I woulda acted
And I was like

[Chorus: fading out]

Maybe she was going home to her boyfriend
Maybe I wasn't the type that she wanted
Maybe I coulda had her, but I was tricked

Didn't make that decision no
And all I got is
Maybe she woulda been my baby
