

Rise (feat. Skylar Grey)

David Guetta

You can take a swing at my ego
you can make a run for my crown.
Even with an army of people you ain't gonna take us down. You can aim your evil right at us
you can drop your bombs on the ground.
Even if your stand makes me nervous
you ain't gonna take us down. There'll be no need for crying

...
if darkness fills the skies.
We'll go on forever like the phoenix

we will rise up from the ashes
this world is ours tonight We'll go on forever like the phoenix

...
We will rise, we will rise.
... You can take a swing at my ego

you can make a run for my crown.
Even with an army of people
you ain't gonna take us down. No!
You can aim your evil right at us
you can drop your bombs on the ground.
Even if your stand makes me nervous
you ain't gonna take us down.
There'll be no need for crying

if darkness fills the skies.
We'll go on forever like the phoenix

we will rise up from the ashes
this world is ours tonight
We'll go on forever like the phoenix

we will rise. We will rise.
