Smoke Clears

Andy Grammer

You and I against the world
That's what you told me
That night in the terminal
As we were boarding
And I know you meant it
Holding my hand so tight
As we flew from Lafayette
Back to pacific timeAnd you lay your head on my shoulder
A couple tears were shed over Arizona
An emotional roller coaster, yeah
We ride the highs and lows
We ride the highs and lows
You'll never be alone
Even when your world explodes
'Cause after all the smoke clears
I will be right here
I will be right here
When the smoke clears
I will be right here
When the smoke clearsAnd when I hit the wall
Back in December
I took my hardest fall
But we fell together
And we spend the weekend
Pacing the hotel room
At the Weston in Dublin
Never felt so close to you
And I laid my head on your shoulder
By the time we left we were ten years older
An emotional roller coaster, yeahWe ride the highs and lows
We ride the highs and lows
You'll never be alone
Even when your world explodes
'Cause after all the smoke clears
I will be right here
I will be right here
When the smoke clears
I will be right here
When the smoke clearsYou and I against the world
That's what you told meWe ride the highs and lows
We ride the highs and lows
You'll never be alone

Even when your world explodes
'Cause after all the smoke clears
I will be right here
I will be right here
When the smoke clears
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by https://www.songlyrics.band/