

Fallen

Seether

She's wearing dresses on the borderline (look again)
Awaking senses that were lost in time (make amends)
This liberation is the one they'll love for ages
Hey man, I've seen it coming, yeah Just cut those tresses, make you look so fine (you're a ten)
Put on that shirt and you'll look so divine (drown in men)
This generation won't forgive those signs of aging
Hey man I've seen it coming, yeah I've got my ticket for the next makeover
I've got my ticket for a stolen ride
I believe, I believe, I believe in the fallen
I believe, I believe, I believe in the calling
They got injections for the facial lines (make amends)
Break out the scalpel keep the nose defined (look again)
The crucifixion of the love we've known for ages
Hey man I've seen it coming, yeah You're much too pretty you don't need your mind (just pretend)
Just bat them eyelids, get your heart's desire (drown in men)
A resurrection of the shallow and the vapid
Hey man I've seen it coming, yeah I've got my ticket for the next makeover
I've lost my taste for this, I'll keep my pride I believe, I believe, I believe in the fallen
I believe, I believe, I believe in the calling I've got my ticket for the next makeover
I've lost my taste for this, I'll keep my pride
I believe, I believe, I believe in the fallen
I believe, I believe, I believe in the calling I believe, I believe, I believe in the fallen
I believe, I believe, I believe in the calling
