

Turn Right

Jonas Brothers

Pick up all your tears
Throw em in your back seat
Leave without a second glance
Somehow I'm to blame
For this never-ending racetrack you call life So turn right
Into my arms
Turn right
You won't be alone
You might fall off this track sometime
Hope to see you on the finish line
You're driving all your friends out
You just be, you cannot follow
And soon you will be on your own
Somehow I'm to blame
For this never-ending racetrack you call life So turn right
Into my arms
Turn right
You won't be alone
You might fall off this track sometime
Hope to see you on the finish line I did all I could
I gave everything
But you had to go your way
And that road was not for me
So turn right
Into my arms
Turn right
You won't be alone
You might fall off this track sometimes
Hope to see you on the finish line
