

Happens All the Time

Jon Pardi

How 'bout tonight we just go crazy
Shoot out the lights then who knows maybe
We'll dance in the dark and won't come apart 'til mornin'
Sneaks in to find us then we'll start over
The day won't unwind us, we'll just get closer
I know you don't know me but I got this feelin' I've been lookin' at your smile all night
And if the things you got me thinkin' work out right
We just might fall in love
I hear it happens all the time
Let's make us some memories worth savin'
Have us some fun misbehavin'
I already see just how good it's gonna be if we just Give in and let go and see what happens
I know we're so close to almost havin'
Somethin' reckless, somethin' real, that's how you make me feel I've been lookin' at your smile all night
And if the things you got me thinkin' work out right
We just might fall in love
I hear it happens all the time I've been lookin' at your smile all night
And if the things you got me thinkin' work out right
We just might fall in love
I hear it happens all the time
So, don't say, yes, but darlin' don't say, no
Let's start with a kiss and see where it goes
It just might last forever
I hear it happens all the time
