

Temporary Insanity

Blanco Brown

[Verse 1]

I never meant to break your broken heart
These lonely nights keep me stayin' awake
Hoping thatâ€¦myâ€¦phone would ring
(Turnâ€¦the page)
All my life, I've beenâ€¦chasing charts
Never felt like I could just walk away
I chose to stay, yeah

[Chorus]

So what I gave up chasing mountains?
I never ever could turn back the page
Or get back that day (Whoa, oh)
I can't pretend to play superhero or play victim
'Cause I hurt myself when I did me wrong
How does that go?

[Post-Chorus]

I think I'm losing it, I feel so cold
Sitting in this dark room alone
With my ceiling fan spinning on low
I know I'm losing it, I'm turning cold
Sittin' in this dark room alone
'Cause my spirit's so down, I feel lost

[Verse 2]

I never thought to gift you everything
And in exchange you broke me and took it away
Can you feel my pain?
Ever since I was a little boy (Boy)
Always questioned my purpose
Don't let me slip away
I chose to play (I chose to play)

[Chorus]

So what I gave up chasing fountains?
I never ever could turn back the page
Or get back that day
I can't pretend to play superhero or play victim
'Cause I hurt myself when I did you wrong

Tell me, how does that go?

[Post-Chorus]

I think I'm losing it, I feel so cold
Sitting in this dark room alone
With my ceiling fan spinning on low
I know I'm losing it, I'm turning cold
Sittin' in this dark room alone
'Cause my spirit's so down, I feel lost
