

Surrender

Fisher

I believe there's no Hell
If you just try to love enemies as yourself
-Heaven will surely hold you a place Outer space is so friggin' huge
I'm convinced there's no way
We're just spinning 'round
The sun all day without
A purpose or an explanation Raise the white flag
And surrender to this life-
Don't question how or why
Pour the whiskey, smell the roses
-tell some jokes
Laugh before you die
It is obvious - life is too short
Always seems we get it down
Just in time to go
Somewhere - who knows where
Maybe someplace better...better See the white light and surrender
When it's time
Don't question how or why
Lay your arms down
And surrender to clouds
You will feel amazing
You will be amazing What is fiction - what is real?
We've been programmed what to feel
By the tv- by the pen
Let your heart open your eyes again
Your eyes again
You know life's too short to live it in fear
Only thing you will regret is what you
Do not do at all - even more than the Stupid things you do
Better take the chance
Listen to your heart
-no one can tell you
What your spirit wants - tell yourself (You'll make it to Heaven)
