

Rainin' In My Heart

The Pretty Things

Rainin' in my heart
Since we've been apart
I know I was wrong
Baby please come home

You've got me crying
'Bout to lose my mind
Don't let me cry in vain
Try my love just once again

SPOKEN:

Honey, I need your love
Darling, you know why
If you would come back home
There'll be no need for me to cry

Rainin' in my heart
Since we've been apart
I know I was wrong
Baby please come home
