

Boing Clash Boom

Dada Life

Now it's official Ive sent my body on a mission I left my brain where it's belonging Cause I won't need it where I'm goingThe heads are turning We so beautiful it's hurting Bring on bananas and the bubbly because we are ready to get uglyeverybody lose it we are going to smash this room everybody lose it but not until the boing clash boomeverybody lose it we are going to smash this room everybody lose it but not until the boing clash boomcheating is winning we keep on winning til the morning and keep on smiling when we're ballin while the boing clash keep on calling everybody lose it
everybody lose it
everybody lose it we are going to smash this room everybody lose it but not until the boing clash boom
